

WEEKLY REPORT

Week of July 30, 2018

Upcoming

- Join the Raymore Parks & Recreation Board and City Council members as we invite Summer Camp attendees to celebrate the opening of the Raymore Activity Center at Recreation Park with a ribbon cutting Monday, Aug. 6 at 1:30 p.m. Staff will offer tours of this 16,000 square-foot multi-use facility. Refreshments will be provided.
- The Mini Mud Run returns to Hawk Ridge Park on Friday, Aug. 17 at 6:30 p.m. Register your 4-12 year old child for this muddy fun run by July 31 for a discounted price of $15. Regular registration is $25 per child until August 16 and walk-up registration on August 17 is $30 per child. Register online at raymore.com/parks

Administration

- Councilman Kevin Barber met with Gov. Mike Parsons as part of a Cass County Mayor's Roundtable. The event focused on infrastructure and economic development and gave mayors the opportunity to talk about the successes and challenges from each community.
- Mayor Kris Turnbow, Councilman Jay Holman and staff from various departments participated in the KMBZ 98.1/FM Community Spotlight at Brewbakers. KMBZ broadcast from the Belton bar and grill and aired stories and held interviews all day focusing on Belton and Raymore.
- The Flex and Mental challenges offered to all employees began August 1st and will run thru August 31st.

Communications

- Communications Specialist Melissa McGhee spoke with KSHB reporter Jordan Betts about the City's permeable paver project currently under construction. View the story that aired on July 30 and 31 here.

Community Development

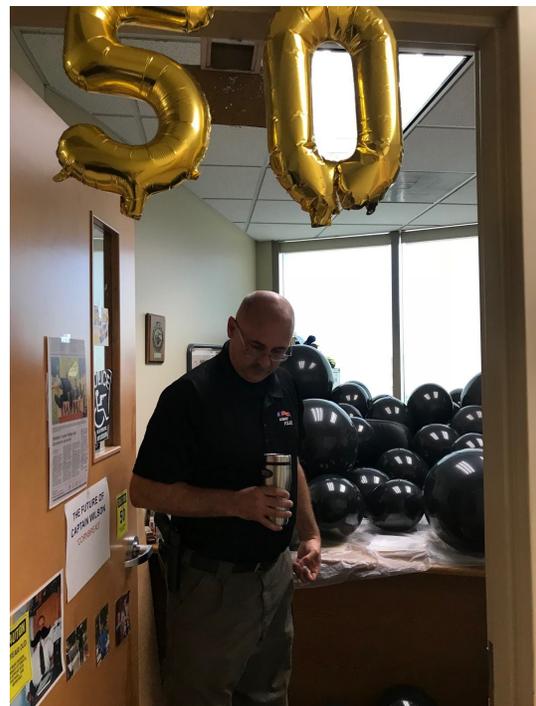

- The Planning & Zoning Commission has cancelled its Aug. 7 meeting.

Parks & Recreation

- Parks & Recreation Director Nathan Musteen met with consultants from CFS Engineers regarding improvements at T.B. Hanna Station.
- Athletic Coordinator Todd Brennon trained new program staff on scheduling software for soccer. Brennon also began creating teams for recreation soccer.
- Recreation Coordinator Katie Pattrick continues planning for the Mini Mud Run scheduled for Aug. 17 and the last days of Summer Camp, Aug. 6-14.
- The Introduction to Archery program completed the summer session with 10 participants. Equipment for the program was obtained by a grant through the Missouri Department of Conservation.
- Park staff completed the landscaping and prepared for the ribbon cutting at the new Raymore Activity Center. Staff also began building obstacles for the upcoming Mini Mud Run.
- Recreation Superintendent met with the Cass County Election Board making preparations for Centerview and the Raymore Activity Center to host elections in Wards 2 and 4.

Police

- Captain Jim Wilson attended the Metro Chiefs Luncheon meeting in Kansas City.
- School Youth Community Outreach Officer Lance Goodard attended the Missouri Police Chief's School Resource Conference at the Lake of Ozarks.
- Captain Wilson also had to clean his office that took sometime. Happy Birthday, Capt. Wilson.

Public Works

- The 155th Street Bridge was opened to traffic on Tuesday and held an impromptu ribbon cutting. Crews will return in the coming weeks to widen and re-pave between Madison and Kurzweil roads.

